Epic Christmas gift ideas
Dive trips to St. Lucia & BC

We're in a festive mood at the dive store! Come and browse the many great gift ideas for the diver in your life.

New SlipIn's: These amazing suits provide much more than a bit of thermal protection when diving!

Have you ever had a sunburn from being out in the tropical sun? SlipIn's provide SPF 60 sun protection!

Have you struggled to pull your wet, clammy wet suit to go for a dive? Wear a SlipIn and the wet suit is easy to put on.

These suits are for women and men, and we have a wide variety of patterns and sizes in stock.

Coordinate with matching socks and crop tops!

When on the liveaboard in the Sea of Cortez we watched some divers wearing a similar dive skin and socks, and decided we need some of these!

This is a great gift for the diver who has almost everything!

Check them out at movie night!

Movie night: Sat. Dec 10. We haven't had a movie night in years – no thank you Covid! We are excited to host a movie night, and have chosen Avatar, the original 2009 film by James Cameron. This is to get us in the mood for the next movie in the series. We have a personal connection to the new Avatar movie 'The Way of Water', which will be released on Dec 16. Come to the movie and we'll share some cool information. Let's start the evening about 6:30.

Epic gift ideas: Do you wish for the gift of scuba gear, or a great dive adventure? We can help with ideas big and small . . .

Sea of Cortez: This was an amazing holiday. Our dive group made great friends with our new dive buddies on the boat. I will happily dive with the Nautilus boats again.

Join us for our next trips:

St. Lucia – Jan 22-29, 2023: heavenly tropical diving: a return trip. We are staying at a most amazing resort. Diving here is suitable for divers of all levels, and non-divers. I am confident we can accommodate additional divers – are you ready for a last minute escape from the winter weather? January is coming up quickly! In addition to great dives, great dive buddies and an amazing resort, our UW photographer specialist David will create a masterpiece collection of photos for you to take to share with family and friends.

Dive travel: I am excited to be traveling again. I have some teaser video of our trip to the Sea of Cortez that I am excited to see on the big screen at the dive shop. We'll preview it before I let James Cameron take over with Avatar!

BC dive adventure: Feb 16-20, 2023: If you have never dove the west coast, it is an amazing place. This will be an epic trip of fun and diving. We have the entire dive boat booked (the Sea Dragon), based in North Vancouver.

- Trip details available – just ask!
- Trip deposit is $200
- We love the underwater colours, the wrecks, the variety of life in BC.
- Our hotel is right in Horseshoe Bay this year!

Indonesia: March 2025: I expect details of this liveboard trip to be unveiled at movie night.

Pool sessions: we will get some pool time booked to get dive gear and skills ready for the trips!

Santa is setting up at the dive store:

- splurge for a 'gift for myself',
- treat someone special in your life to a scuba experience or lessons!

Santa has been stuffing his sack with new regulators; dry suits, dive computers, lights and more!!

So many choices!

Dive buddy Red:

With a heavy heart I share sadness with the divers of Cold Lake, as we have learned about the passing of Charles "Red" Ehrich.

He will always be known as the most knowledgeable diver of Cold Lake.

Red was a unique character, and we enjoyed many dives in Cold Lake and Clear Lake. We dove together as recently as this Sept. in the Cold River, and have photos going back to dives in the early 1990's. RIP Red.

Take care, Connie
